FORT BENNING – Col. Casey P. Haskins will assume command of the Infantry Training Brigade from Col. Scott A. Henry during a change of command ceremony at 9 a.m. July 26 on Kanell Field.

Haskins, a graduate of the U. S. Military Academy, has been on active duty since 1982.

His most recent assignment was as at Fort Benning where he served as the director, Combined Arms and Tactics Division.

He and his wife, Esther, are the parents of two sons.

Henry has been reassigned to Washington, D.C., where he will serve with the Joint Improvised Explosive Devices (IED) Task Force. He has been in command at the Infantry Training Brigade since August 2004.

The Infantry Training Brigade conducts 14-week-long Infantry one station unit training cycles. More than 15,000 Soldiers enter the Army and graduate from the Infantry Training Brigade annually.

For more information, call the Public Affairs Office at 545-3512 or 545-2237.
